Summary of reasons for decision:

The availability of the computer image file printout is restricted to persons who have attained the age of 18 years because it shows a naked young woman displaying her sexual parts for the camera. New Zealand society in general perceives an injury in children and younger teenagers being exposed to explicit sexual material before they are ready. The likely injury lies in the potential for the publication to have a harmful effect on the development of sexual behaviour and attitudes.

The classification given to this publication places a limit on the freedom of expression as set out in the New Zealand Bill of Rights Act 1990, but the availability of the file to children and young people is likely to be injurious to the public good. The classification is reasonable, demonstrably justifiable and the minimum required to avoid injury.
